ATLANTIC HOCKEY GROUP

Founded in 1989 the Atlantic Hockey Group (AHG) has become a leader of delivering hockey programs for all levels and ages in Atlantic Canada. Through its many different leagues the AHG works with over 5000 hockey players each year. The AHG provides strong administrative support with its eight full time employees.

DIRECTOR, Charlie Bourgeois

A native of Moncton, N.B., Charlie Bourgeois brings over 12 years of professional hockey experience to the Atlantic Hockey Group. His amateur career was crowned by a Canadian University Championship with the Moncton Blue Eagles. Charlie was named "All Canadian" in that championship year. The following season, he began his pro-career with the Calgary Flames of the NHL. In his seven-year NHL career, he also played for the St. Louis Blues. His coaching career began in Europe, followed by a two year stint in the AHL with the Winnipeg Jets top farm team. As head coach of the 2004-05 Université de Moncton Aigles Bleus, Charlie captured the Atlantic University Championship.

Congratulations to our 2018-19 Winners

ADULT LEAGUE

After nine very successful seasons of operating Adult Hockey programs in NS we are excited about our 2019-20 program which will include a total of 40 teams. We are dedicated to providing adult hockey players with the very best opportunity to enjoy adult recreational hockey in a fun, safe and competitive atmosphere. We are committed to having our teams compete at the appropriate level by offering multiple divisions. Our league also offers the great feature of games taking place during Prime Time at a world class facility. We simply want to make your recreational hockey experience an enjoyable one.
