ATLANTIC HOCKEY GROUP Founded in 1989 the Atlantic Hockey Group (AHG) has become a leader of delivering hockey programs for all levels and ages in Atlantic Canada. Through its many different leagues, the AHG works with over 5000 hockey players each year. The AHG provides strong administrative support with its eight full time employees including a program Director who will be responsible for overseeing the operations of our Adult Hockey League.

DIRECTOR, Charlie Bourgeois

A native of Moncton, N.B., Charlie Bourgeois brings over 12 years of professional hockey experience to the Atlantic Hockey Group. His amateur career was crowned by a Canadian University Championship with the Moncton Blue Eagles. Charlie was named "All Canadian" in that championship year. The following season, he began his pro-career with the Calgary Flames of the NHL. In his seven year NHL career, he also played for the St.Louis Blues. His coaching career began in Europe, followed by a two year stint in the AHL with the Winnipeg Jets top farm team. As head coach of the 2004-05 Université de Moncton Aigles Bleus, Charlie captured the Atlantic University Championship.

MONCTON PRIME TIME ADULT HOCKEY LEAGUE
